SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM LAUNCHED

Dr. Irving A. Fradkin of Fall River, Mass. was entertained at a dinner on Friday evening at Old Rochester Regional High School. Members of the three communities who had attended the initial meeting of the scholarship group were present at the dinner. After meeting and talking with this group Dr. Fradkin was introduced to a larger audience in the school auditorium. As president and founder of Citizens' Scholarship Foundation, Dr. Fradkin explained his program and told of the way it has worked in other cities.

He said that the program has amazed citizens in the towns where it has been started in that they always raise more funds than they think possible. The scholarship plan is not a gift but a loan to enable students to go to college. The students assume a moral obligation to repay the scholarship so that another student can be helped in turn. There is a point system which has been worked out so that the scholarships are not limited to A students. Points are given for leadership, need, ambition and drive, so that B students and even high C students have an opportunity to continue their education. Dr. Fradkin said that in the whole program, drop-outs have been limited to students who married. Students who are helped, once they are in college, have set an admirable record for completing their education. He said the program encourages students to work part time in college test, furnishes an outline of by-laws, fund raising ideas and publicity materials, and furnishes the point system of awarding scholarships. All other functions and activities and control is local. People from our three towns will direct, raise funds, and award the scholarships. Those applications which will be evaluated will carry a registration number rather than a name so that students will be judged simply on merit as determined by the number of points.

Norman Cartmill of Marion was named president; Horace Darrah of Mattapoisett, vice-president; and Mrs. Logan Doane of Rochester, secretary. The office of treasurer was left open. The by-laws committee has already done much preliminary work. Charles Dunn of Mattapoisett, Swen Olaussen of Rochester and Robert Bruce of Marion have been serving on this committee and they have been joined by Earle Wilson of Mattapoisett and Attorney Joseph Lipsitt of Marion.

Bonds were sold to those attending the meeting and more than $100 were purchased.

Fred Swift pounded out a 360 for Hartley's Garage and a 2 to 1 win over Hillers Garage. Frank Walsh found 354 pins for Hillers. Ralph Gurney, with a 161/381, fired the Hartley Saw Mill to a 2 to 1 win over the Woodchoppers. George Smith was chief hatchet man for the Woodcutters with his 344. The Knotty Pine Cafe sprung a surprise party for Lloyds Market and took away two points. Bob Jefferson was top for the Cafe, with a 351, while Al Souza picked up a 345 for the losers.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

One of our Massachusetts Congressmen, Hon. Philip J. Philbin, of Clinton, recently made a thought-provoking speech, which is quoted in the Congressional Record of February 7, 1963.

Congressman Philbin said that he considered a speech made about 100 years ago by the great British thinker and writer, Macauley, to be so realistic and timely as to be well worth repeating. In part, Mr. Macauley said, "Your Constitution is all sail and no anchor. Either some Ceaser or Napoleon will seize the reins of government with a strong hand, or your Repubin the 5th; with this difference, those who ravished the Roman Empire came from without, while your vandals will have been engendered within your own country, and by your own institutions."

Mr. Philbin said that he did not agree that either the American Constitution or our institutions are inadequate to cope with present conditions, but he firmly believed that it is imperative for us to take account of present trends in the Nation, and then move with all practicable speed to strengthen our institutions, wherever this is deemed necessary, so that we may resist the incessant clamors and impacts of subversive and softening ideas and destructive movements.

The Congressman's closing paragraph: "But we must tackle this important task before our free institutions are overwhelmed by the whirlwind of radical thought and movements that literally besiege us, and before, by the sheer force of events, we succumb to the tides of moral, social, and political disintegration, which godless materialism is sweeping across the world."

Dear friends,

We think the custom of expressing sympathy by sending flowers is a beautiful one. There is comfort in these floral expressions.

Those who say, "I prefer to give my flowers to the living rather than to the dead" should remember that flowers at a funeral ARE for the living. Flowers may also convey a tribute to the deceased, but this again is for the comfort of the family.

Respectfully,
